

South Frankfort Neighborhood Association (SFNA)
2011 – 2012 Randy Bacon Memorial Scholarship Information

Each year the SFNA Executive Committee, with input from board members from The Kings Center, will award a scholarship to one or more Frankfort Independent School (FIS) student(s) living in South Frankfort in honor of long-time SFNA board member, resident, and community activist Randy Bacon.

The award is for scholarship, leadership, and service in school, church, and community in South Frankfort. One or more scholarships will be awarded to a student who

- is enrolled in the FIS district.
- is living within the boundaries of South Frankfort as defined by SFNA bylaws.
- will be graduating within the 2011-2012 school year.
- is earning a 2.0 cumulative GPA on their mid-term report card.
- submits the completed application prior to the deadline of November 15, 2011.

All applicants are judged anonymously in the following areas:

- Scholastic achievements and extra-curricular activities;
- Community service;
- Student essay on “Why I need and deserve this scholarship;” and
- Letter of recommendation.

Additional information regarding the scholarship process:

- Applications are given to the principals and guidance counselors at Frankfort High, Wilkinson Street. They are asked to distribute them to eligible students.
- Applicants must live in South Frankfort and be eligible to graduate in the current school year.
- Applicant names, addresses, and identifying information are hidden from judges.
- The winner is notified with a phone call and a follow-up letter. Those who did not receive a scholarship are not notified. The award announcement will be made in the SFNA newsletter with the student’s name and picture.
- Scholarship winners are invited to attend an SFNA quarterly meeting and introduce themselves.
- Scholarships may be used towards college, trade, or vocational school tuition. The amount of the scholarship will be determined by SFNA fundraisers throughout the year, but will be a minimum of $500.
- The SFNA treasurer will provide a check directly to the higher education institution.

If you have questions please call SFNA Scholarship Administrator, Rona Stapleton at 227-0123; SFNA Chair, Katie Carney at 330-7072; or your guidance counselor.

Additional copies of the scholarship application are available at www.southfrankfort.org.

Randy Bacon:

Richard Randolph "Randy" Bacon, 68, passed away on May 25, 2007, at his residence after a lengthy illness. He had resided in Frankfort since 1972, but also considered the community of Swan Pond, located in Knox County, Kentucky, to be his home.

Born on May 3, 1939, in Louisville, Kentucky, to the late James Richard and Bonnie Avanelle (Earle) Bacon, he resided in Barbourville, Kentucky, during his childhood years. He attended high school at Webb School in Bell Buckle, Tennessee, and spent three years studying at Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio, before finishing his undergraduate degree at Union College in Barbourville, Kentucky.

He went on to conduct post-baccalaureate studies at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He worked for the Legislative Research Commission until retiring in 1992. A member of the First United Methodist Church of Frankfort, he participated in Volunteers in Mission and Wilderness Trail. He served on the Frankfort Parks and Recreation Board and in 1997 founded the Kings Center, a nonprofit Christian youth organization located in South Frankfort.

In addition to his wife, Patricia Rowland Bacon, he is survived by four children: Christopher Clinton (Melissa) Bacon of Lexington, William Randolph (Jennifer) Bacon of Harrodsburg, Kata Elizabeth (Kris) Bacon-Shera of Frankfort, and James David Bacon of Lexington; four grandchildren: Clinton Begley Bacon, Mary Christina Bacon, Ruben Clay Bacon, and Lucy Kay Bacon; one brother: Barry Winston (Debbie) Bacon; and several nieces and nephews. Grandchild Lucas Randolph Shera was born July 20, 2009 and another grandchild is expected in August 2011.
