Featured Speaker:

Bob Yapp, Preservation Resources, has dedicated his career to community planning, central City revitalization, historic preservation and woodworking. Bob has been involved in the restoration and rehabilitation of more than 150 historic properties, many of them award winning. In 1996 Bob started production of the national, weekly PBS program, “About Your House with Bob Yapp”. Bob was executive producer, writer and host for this National Trust for Historic Preservation sponsored, 52 show series.

He presently operates and teaches at “The Belvedere School for Hands-On Preservation” in Hannibal, Missouri and has traveled throughout the U.S. giving keynote speeches, seminars and workshops on historic preservation.

This event is partially funded with Federal Funds from the National Park Service, U.S. Department of the Interior, and administered by the Kentucky Heritage Council. The contents and opinions do not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the Department of the Interior, nor does the mention of trade names or commercial products constitute endorsement or recommendation by the Department of the Interior.
